THE WAY HOME

Andie MacDowell Shares The Importance Of Her Grandmother's Influence In Her Newest Role. By Zhanna Slor

Andie MacDowell stars in the fresh multigenerational family drama The Way Home, beginning Sunday, Jan. 15, on Hallmark Channel, about single mother Kat Landry (Chylér Leigh), who, after some personal troubles, decides to return home to the small Canadian farm town of Port Haven with her 15-year-old daughter, Alice (Sadie Laflamme-Snow). Alice has never met her grandmother, Del (MacDowell), due to a long estrangement, and immediately goes about trying to understand what happened to leave her family so fractured. Luckily for her, and viewers, she is aided in her quest by some time travel back to 1999.

The former Groundhog Day and Cedar Cove star was excited to return to the network for a different approach to feel-good storytelling. "It's different for Hallmark. I think it's going to be something that surprises people in a really good way," MacDowell says. "I was blown away by it. There are aspects of romance in it, but it's more about relationships and family and how we carry the pain that we all carry and how we pass it on.

"My storyline is about healing and empowerment and learning to open my heart," MacDowell continues. "There's a great loss in the pilot, and my daughter and I are estranged because of it. We don't really have a relationship until a lot of things go wrong with her personal life, and she comes home out of desperation and brings my granddaughter. To me, that was huge, because I imagined what it would feel like to be a grandmother who never really got to know her granddaughter. I love that part of my storyline. It's juicy."

As a mother of three, playing this role came very naturally to MacDowell, as did donning her stunning, natural shade of gray. "This is something that I feel like I've earned," MacDowell says. "I'm really proud of where I am in my life. Also, I want to help promote the idea that we are beautiful at every age, that we should be comfortable where we are. There's a huge value to grandparents. My grandmother was a huge influence on my life. I think we need to see more of those types of characters, where a grandmother is a grandmother, and she's solid and comfortable in her skin being a role model as a grandmother. And that's one thing that I really love about Del."

Asked to rate the emotional side of the series with how many boxes of Kleenex viewers should bring, MacDowell says, "Oh, I think you're going to need a lot of Kleenex."

"ACCUSED" IS ROOTED IN THE MORAL QUANDARIES OF OUR TIME

When he sat down to write Accused, executive producer Howard Gordon (Homeland, 24) thought of the loneliest moments in a person's life. One was death, the other standing trial. "Your life, or the balance of it, or however much you have left of it, is now really on the line," Gordon says. "You're in the box, and your life is going to change from this moment on forever." FOX's Accused is a 15-part anthology series featuring a different cast and a different story each week. Every episode opens in a courtroom with a defendant, and the story of how they got there unfolds from their perspective. "We are really experiencing the accumulating events that conspired against them to bring them to this moment, or the choices they made that got worse and led them to this," Gordon says. An all-star roster of actors and directors brings these stories to life. The premiere episode (Sunday, Jan. 22) stars Michael Chiklis as a brain surgeon who learns that his son may be planning a violent attack at school. After the premiere the series will air Tuesdays. — Ryan A. Berenz

WHAT'S NEXT, AFTER LOSING EVERYTHING?

Bryan Cranston Returns To His Heartbreaking Role In

"Your Honor." By Barb Oates

© 2022 SHOWTIME NETWORKS INC. All rights reserved. Credit: Andrew Cooper

"I like to have as normal of a life as possible," Bryan Cranston tells us. "Borderline boring."

Hard to imagine from a man who has mesmerized TV, movie and Broadway audiences for decades now with his award-winning performances. And, hardly reality when he's been whirlwinding the world in Spain filming Wes Anderson's Asteroid City, London filming Argylle, as well as producing and writing and running his Dos Hombres mezcal business with Breaking Bad pal Aaron Paul.

When we caught up with Cranston, he was back in Los Angeles returning to his role as Judge Michael Desiato in Showtime's tense drama Your Honor. The multi-E Emmy and Tony winner originally wrapped the limited series believing Michael's story ended in "a lovely, tragic way" that was "very appropriate." When he was approached with a second season premise, he was intrigued.

"You realize if the first season was about a man who compromises his principles, then the second season is about redemption," Cranston tells. "Can a person who lost everything find a way back to some kind of life? And that's what got me excited about it."

Here Cranston helps answer some of our burning questions on the new season, which premieres Sunday, Jan. 15.

Michael has lied and betrayed so many of his friends, yet we still want him to come out of this OK. Why is that?

Bryan Cranston: I think because the original sin was understandable. I think it's more apparent to a parent. When I ask the question, "What would you do to save your child's life?" I have not met a parent, not yet, who doesn't say "I would do anything." And that's the feeling you have. You would do anything if you truly felt your child's life was being threatened. That's your job. And that's where your heart is. And so when that initial question was proposed, the audience got a dose of that, in saying he was just trying to protect his son. That's all he was doing, and I get it. But, that being said, there is a penalty, the repercussions of those decisions, and that is the spiral effect that happened in our storytelling. ... He had to make that immediate decision and it changed his life forever, and his son's life. The ripple effect of that, we'll see more in the second season. We'll see how deeply it goes. When there's a loss, it doesn't just stay within the first realm of people connected to that person directly. There's an indirect ripple effect that happens, and that's what we're going to show. But I wanted to really explore redemption and the power of forgiveness and the authenticity of grief, allowing ourselves to be in it.

When we pick up in Season 2, Michael is almost unrecognizable. First, is that beard real? Can you talk about this transformation?

It's a real beard, real hair, real thinness. It was a transition that I wanted to make and to look different because it is different. His whole point of view, as you'll see, is different. He is not the same man. And I wanted to allow the audience to see how despair and grief changes a person, and your priorities change, your outlook on life changes.

How does he even begin to start making amends with some of the people he loved and betrayed, like Lee (Carmen Ejogo)?

Each person that he comes in contact with, there is a trepidation from both sides about how this is handled. How do we go on from here? How is that possible? With Lee, it was an unfortunate and disturbing kind of ending with so many lies and so much misdirection, and the manipulation pushed her into a place where she just couldn't take it anymore. She, too, has got to deal with the ramifications of that. He was not only a mentor to her, but now a lover, and it's like she was starting to devote her personal life toward him, and it devastated her. So we'll see how she handles that in Season 2.

Rosie Perez is joining the cast this season. Is she a friend or a foe to you?

She is coming in and she is a thorn in my side, I can tell you that. She is a dynamo and a very powerful person, both in personality and the character, and in position.

Breaking Down Bryan Cranston Fans

When asked to break down his fan encounters by the characters people most stop him about, Bryan Cranston calculates it to be:

75% Walter White, Breaking Bad

8% Broadway

8% Hal Wilkerson, Malcolm in the Middle

8% Dr. Whatley, Seinfeld

5 QUESTIONS with ...

ROMÁN ZARAGOZA
Of CBS' "Ghosts"

As a toddler, Román Zaragoza watched his dad, Gregory Zaragoza, play Chief Sitting Bull in a Broadway revival of Annie Get Your Gun. "So before I was 3 years old, I was seeing the show, going backstage, hanging out with Bernadette Peters, and I had crushes on all of the young female performers in the show," he says. "I just fell in love with theater right away and the community aspect of it all." On his day off from CBS' breakout hit Ghosts (Thursdays), where he's Sasappis, Zaragoza spoke over Zoom to answer our "5 Questions."

- 1. Have you ever had a ghostly experience? Growing up, I definitely felt connected to my grandfather, who passed on before I was born, and I bear his name. I remember my mom would tell me that she would see me just talking to the corner. And she said, "Who are you talking to?" And I would respond, "Grandpa." My mom would be like, "This is really cute and terrifying." It's really cool to feel that connection with ancestors that I never even really knew.
- 2. Did you always want to be an actor? It was very encouraged at a young age because my dad fell in love with it when he was in his 30s after being a lawyer. So he and my mom put us into singing, acting and dancing classes at such a young age. And seeing my two older sisters do it, I was like, I have to do this.
- 3. Tell us about a time when you were starstruck. In 2017, I was coming out of a hair salon, and I saw all these paparazzi outside. Selena Gomez was taking a yoga class downstairs. I loved her growing up.
- 4. Who would you have at a mythical dinner party that anyone can attend? Heath Ledger. I just want to talk to him. I have so many questions. I just want to be his friend. He just seemed like such a cool, cool dude and so talented, so free. Bruce Lee would be awesome to talk to about philosophy. I started taking Wing Chun recently, a form of kung fu, so I would love to talk to him about martial arts. Also, Neil Patrick Harris and Michelle Obama.
- 5. What were some jobs you had before acting? I was an assistant to an electrician. My mom wanted me to learn trades. At the L.A. Auto Show, I was a helpful Honda person and told people where the bathroom was. I went from college to the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

PBS will air Nature: Soul of the Ocean on Wednesday, January 25 at 8 PM ET (check your local listings). Howard Hall, one of the world's foremost underwater filmmakers, brings to this new episode of Nature a lifetime of insights into how life in the ocean really works. Coral reefs turn out to be cosmopolitan cities where relationships thrive. A specialist shrimp, a baby damsel fish, and a porcelain crab all share the protection of an anemone. An urchin and a crab form an unlikely pair. Fan corals each support their own kind of seahorse. They are all part of a vast system that only exists because everything is connected. From great whales to turtles, to sharks and tiny blennies, the ocean is full of creatures that need and support each other.

BBC America will premiere the highly-anticipated sequel series, Frozen Planet II, on Saturday, January 28 at 8 PM ET/PT, narrated by Emmy®-winning famed naturalist Sir David Attenborough. It will also be available same day on AMC+. Yes, we will return to the Arctic and Antarctic to observe the amazing species that thrive there, however, this 6-part series also explores life beyond the Poles. Witness the wildlife dramas that play out in all the world's coldest regions: our high mountains, frozen deserts, snowbound forests, and ice-cold oceans. From polar bears to penguins, Siberian tigers to snow monkeys, each species must overcome unique challenges to survive their extreme environments. Filmed in ultra-high definition using the very latest camera technology, featuring dramatic new behaviors, intimate stories, and sensational natural spectacles filmed for the very first time.

Freeform will premiere its new psychological thriller series The Watchful Eye with back-to-back episodes on Monday, January 30 starting at 9 PM ET/PT. The cast is led by Mariel Molino, who plays Elena Santos, a bright, savvy young woman hired as the live-in nanny to a wealthy widower and his young son. She quickly learns about the complex politics among its wealthy inhabitants and a history riddled with mystery and tragedy. However, Elena has some shocking secrets of her own.

The Invention of the Year

The world's most fun-to-drive and portable mobility device

Once in a lifetime, a product comes along that truly moves people. Introducing the future of battery-powered personal transportation . . . The Zinger.

Throughout the ages, there have been many important advances in mobility. Canes, walkers, rollators, and scooters were created to help people with mobility issues get around and retain their independence. Lately, however, there haven't been any new improvements to these existing products or developments in this field. Until now. Recently, an innovative design engineer who's developed one of the world's most popular products created a completely new breakthrough . . . a personal electric vehicle. It's called the Zinger, and there is nothing out there quite like it.

"What my wife especially loves is it gives her back feelings of safety and independence which has given a real boost to her confidence and happiness! Thank You!"

-Kent C., California

The first thing you'll notice about the Zinger is its unique look. It doesn't look like a scooter. Its sleek, lightweight yet durable frame is made with aircraft grade aluminum so it weighs only 47.2 lbs. It features one-touch folding and unfolding - when folded it can be wheeled around like a suitcase and fits easily into a backseat or trunk. Then, there are the steering levers. They enable the Zinger to move forward, backward, turn on a dime and even pull right up to a table or desk. With its compact yet powerful motor it can go up to 6 miles an hour and its rechargeable battery can go up to 8 miles on a single charge.

Available in Green, Black and Blue (shown)

With its low center of gravity and inflatable tires it can handle rugged terrain and is virtually tip-proof. Think about it, you can take your Zinger almost anywhere, so you don't have to let mobility issues rule your life.

The Zinger folds to a mere 10 inches.

Why take our word for it? Call now, and find out how you can get a Zinger of your very own.

Will Sharon Take A Chance On Romance On "The Young And The Restless"?

The Young and the Restless'

Sharon Newman Rosales (Sharon Case) has been relegated to pouring coffee and doling out advice at Crimson Lights since the untimely death of her husband Rey Rosales (Jordi Vilasuso), but a developing relationship with Phillip "Chance" Chancellor (Conner Floyd) may change all that.

Watch for these two to get closer this week as Sharon continues to support Chance, who watched his marriage fall apart after his wife, Abby Newman-Abbott-Chancellor (Melissa Ordway), had an extramarital romp with Devon Hamilton (Bryton James). Chance has gotten some unofficial therapy from Sharon, and the chemistry between these two is palpable.

An Abby/Chance reunion isn't likely, as she and Devon are growing more and more committed to one another. While it's safe to say that the majority of Y&R fans prefer to see Sharon and ex-husband Nick Newman (Joshua Morrow) as an endgame, Nick's relationship with Sally Spectra (Courtney Hope) is another impediment to that reunion occurring.

Chance has been through a lot in life. His work as a law enforcement agent has put his life in jeopardy, and he, like Sharon, is also mourning Rey, who was Chance's police partner. It's not clear yet whether Sharon and Chance have staying power as a romantic duo, but one thing is certain: Sharon is capable of helping Chance heal and move forward with his life.

Phyllis Summers (Michelle Stafford) spearheaded the campaign to bring Jeremy Stark (James Hyde) to Genoa City, hoping to drive rival Diane Jenkins (Susan Walters) away, but that plan keeps backfiring. Jack Abbott (Peter Bergman) continues to show more than sympathy to the mother of his son; Jack and Diane are in the process of rekindling their relationship. Phyllis has no one but herself to blame for indirectly causing this reunion.

The true casualty of Phyllis' vendetta against Diane continues to be the marriage of her daughter Summer (Allison Lanier) and Diane's son Kyle Abbott (Michael Meador). Who are the grownups in this situation, and how much work at Jabot can be accomplished when Diane and Phyllis are embroiled in the mother of all mother-in-law battles?

Phyllis' plan to use Jeremy against Diane has numerous ramifications. The ex-con not only poses a threat to Diane, but also to her loved ones, including her grandson, Harrison Locke (Kellen Enriquez). Phyllis isn't one to pull back from a situation — especially if she feels she can make it better.

ASK MATT

WILL WE SEE MORE OF THE OLD MAN?

@TVGMMattRoush

Question: Will The Old Man with Jeff Bridges ever return? I am so glad he overcame all of his health obstacles, and I really loved that show. —Fran R

Matt Roush: Happy to say that FX renewed the show while the first season was still underway. I imagine the network's enthusiasm has only grown since Jeff Bridges, and his co-star John Lithgow, have received nominations from the Critics Choice Awards, the Golden Globes, and the Satellite Awards. And we're just beginning.

Question: I just finished the first season of the South African series Recipes for Love and Murder. Quite a different role for Maria Doyle Kennedy than her The Wheel of Time character, and she was great as Tannie Maria. I loved that the ongoing murder investigations were complicated and many-layered. I've unfortunately recently heard cancellation rumors! Please say it isn't true!!! —Rhonda Matt Roush: Wish I could, but as far as I can tell, there has been no decision made yet, positively or negatively. I found Recipes to be a cut above many of the recent Acorn mysteries and would be happy to see it return.

How I Met Your Father
on HULU

The singles scene of New York City continues to be fodder for Sophie (Hilary Duff) and her friends as we all wonder just who the father could be in the Season 2 premiere. Chris Lowell, Tom Ainsley, Francia Raisa, Tien Tran, and Suraj Sharma are expected to return.

Peg O' My Heart
7 pm on TCM

Peg (Marion Davies) and her father Pat (J. Farrell MacDon-ald) live a simple life in an Irish fishing village. One day Sir Gerald (Onslow Stevens) arrives at the village to tell Pat that Peg is heir to the estate of her grandfather, who hated Pat in this 1933 drama.

American Auto
7:30 pm on NBC
Series Premiere

The floundering horsepower behind Payne Motors is back for its Season 2 premiere and Katherine (Ana Gasteyer) and her team are on the verge of bringing back an American leg- end. But ineptitude and egos put everything at hilarious risk.

American Masters
8 pm on PBS

The new episode Roberta Flack, follows the music icon from a piano lounge through her rise to stardom. From "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" to "Killing Me Softly," Flack's virtuosity was insepa- rable from her commitment to civil rights.

CHEERS & JEERS

by Damian Holbrook
TV Guide Magazine

@damianholbrook

CHEERS TO ZIWE.

Whether talking privilege with Drew Barrymore (below right, with Ziwe) or needling Glee alum Amber Riley about complex costars, the deadpan writer-comic has turned her Showtime variety venue into TV's boldest conversation starter on culture and race.

CHEERS TO THE CLEANING LADY

follow Cheers & Jeers

JEERS TO NETFLIX'S SNACK VS. CHEF

for double-dipping. Sorry, but we already tasted this recipe—competing cooks re-creating iconic treats before whipping up their own elevated versions—on truTV's Fast Foodies. And with unfiltered guests like Joel McHale and comedian Nikki Glaser, the previous take was a lot fresher.

JEERS TO THE GOOD DOCTOR'S

bad timing. December's finale closing with the seemingly fatal overdose of intern and recovering addict Danny Perez (Brandon Larracuent, above) would've hit us harder if ABC hadn't revealed in November that he'd signed on as a series regular. The only thing dead here is the suspense.

The ultimate jewelry must-have for a must-get price. Italian-made perfection for only $39!

There are certain fashion essentials every woman simply must have: A little black dress. A great pair of jeans. A strand of pearls. And, to round things out, a pair of great hoop earrings.
